FCAM, the parent company of the AIFM, is incorporated in the United Kingdom. The directors of FCAM are Gilles Ouellette, Barry Cooper, William (Bill) Smith, Richard Wilson, Charlie Porter, David Logan, Ruth Sack, Kieran Poynter and Joan Mohammed. FCAM has its offices at 6th Floor, Quartermile 4, 7a Nightingale Way, Edinburgh EH3 9EG, Scotland.

FCAM is wholly owned by Bank of Montreal through its wholly owned subsidiary, BMO Global Asset Management (Europe) Limited. BMO Global Asset Management is part of BMO Financial Group, a highly diversified financial services provider based in North America. .

The Company has entered into an amended and restated investment management agreement with FCIB dated 22 July 2014 appointing it to act as AIFM to the Company in accordance with the requirements of the AIFM Directive, which includes the provision of discretionary investment management services and risk oversight and management services in relation to the Company's investment portfolio.

In addition to its duties as AIFM, FCIB also provides company secretarial, accounting, marketing and administrative services to the Company, as set out in detail in the Annual Report and Accounts which can be accessed at www.fcmanagedportfolio.co.uk.

FCIB's remuneration is based on a management fee at the rate of 0.65% per annum of the total assets of each Portfolio, calculated at each quarter end. This fee payable in respect of investments held by the Company in other vehicles managed by the Manager is reduced to 0.325% per annum on the relevant assets. The Manager also receives an index linked secretarial and administration fee of £81,450 per annum. If certain conditions are met an annual Performance fee may be paid for each separate share class. The Performance fee (if any) for each share class in respect of each financial year equals 10 per cent of the monetary amount by which the rate of total return of the relevant Portfolio over that year (after all costs and expenses excluding the Performance Fee) exceeds the rate of total return on the FTSE All-Share Index (in each case with dividends reinvested). The Performance fee payable in respect of any one year is capped at 0.35 per cent. of the Total Assets of the relevant Portfolio .

The Investment management agreement is terminable by either party on six months' notice. The Company may terminate the Agreement early upon payment of an amount equal to the base fee which would have been payable had the notice period been complied with, plus any performance fee accrued at termination.

Remuneration policy of the AIFM

The AIFM Remuneration Code of the UK Financial Conduct Authority requires F&C Investment Business Limited as the designated AIFM for F&C Managed Portfolio Trust plc to maintain a remuneration policy for AIFM Remuneration Code Staff ("AIFM Code Staff"). The policy's purpose is to promote sound and effective risk management. The policy must be consistent with F&C Managed Portfolio Trust plc's risk profile, governing terms and investment strategy. AIFM Code Staff are treated as those persons whose professional activities have a material impact on the risk profiles of the AIFMs or the investment funds managed by them.

The Board of the AIFM delegates to the BMO Global Asset Management (EMEA) Group Risk and Remuneration Committee (the "Committee") the responsibility of maintaining a compliant remuneration policy. The Committee approves on an annual basis the BMO Global Asset Management (EMEA) Group Remuneration Policy (the “Policy”).

The Policy defines how the AIFM will achieve the objective of providing total compensation to AIFM Code Staff, taking into account:

- business unit/function, individual performance and market rates
- the promotion of sound and effective risk management and the achievement of fair outcomes for all customers.

The Policy deals with how the “Pay-Out Process Rules” in the AIFM Remuneration Code apply to variable remuneration (which may be cash bonus and/or long-term award pools). The Pay-Out Process Rules require certain levels of variable remuneration to be paid in the shares of the relevant investment fund and for certain amounts to be deferred. The Committee determines annually how the Pay-Out Process Rules apply at a firm and at an AIFM Code Staff level.

The Policy also includes requirements that an employee’s unvested variable remuneration may be reduced at the discretion of the Committee in certain circumstances, for example, reasonable evidence of employee misconduct, or material failure in risk management.

Employee remuneration disclosure

The total remuneration paid by F&C Investment Business Limited to its staff is zero, as all AIFM staff are employed by other companies in the same group of companies as the AIFM.

The table below provides an overview of aggregate total remuneration paid to AIFM Code Staff.

Headcount Total

	Headcount	Total Remuneration (£m)
F&C Investment Business Limited Remuneration Code Staff	23	2.432
of which:
Senior Management	11	0.501
Other Code Staff	12	1.931

Notes:

Total remuneration reported is the sum of salary, cash bonus, any deferred annual bonus, the face value of any long term incentive awards, plus the value (actual or estimated) of any pension or benefits in kind, awarded in respect of performance in the reportable financial year.

The table excludes individuals who are providing delegated services to the AIFM.

It is not possible to apportion remuneration based on time spent by individual Code Staff on the work of a specific AIF. Total Remuneration is therefore provided in aggregate on an AIFM basis, rather than specific to F&C Managed Portfolio Trust plc.

AIFM activities

The following table provides an overview of the size and composition of the funds managed by the AIFM, including F&C Managed Portfolio Trust plc. This shows the total number of funds managed, the split between, and proportions of AIF, UCITS and other funds.

Alternative investment funds	16	8,450,843,491	100%
Other funds	0	0	0%

The Depositary

The Company has appointed J.P. Morgan Europe Limited (JP MEL) to provide depositary services, in accordance with the AIFM Directive and certain other associated rules, pursuant to the terms of a depositary agreement dated 22 July 2014 to which both the Company and the AIFM are parties. The services provided by JP MEL as depositary for the Company include:

- general oversight responsibilities over the issue and cancellation of the Company's share capital, the carrying out of net asset value calculations, the application of income, and the ex-post review of investment transactions;
- monitoring the Company's cash flows and ensuring that all cash is booked in appropriate accounts in the name of the Company or FCIB or JP MEL acting on behalf of the Company; and
- ensuring that J.P. Morgan Chase Bank Limited (JPMCB) (to whom JP MEL has delegated the safekeeping of all assets held within the Company's investment portfolio, including those classed as financial instruments for the purpose of the AIFM Directive, in accordance with the terms of a Global Custody Agreement to which both the Company and the AIFM are also a party) retains custody of the Company's financial instruments in segregated accounts so that they can be clearly identified as belonging to the Company and maintains records sufficient for verification of the Company's ownership rights in relation to assets other than financial instruments. No specific conflicts have been identified as arising as a result of the delegation of the provision of custody and safekeeping services by JP MEL to JPMCB.

The terms of the depositary agreement provide that, where certain assets of the Company are invested in a country whose laws require certain financial instruments to be held in custody by a local entity and no such entity is able to satisfy the requirements under the AIFM Directive in relation to use of delegates by depositaries, JP MEL may still delegate its functions to such a local entity and be fully discharged of all liability for loss of financial instruments of the Company by such local entity. However, this is strictly subject to the prior approval of the Directors and a prior notification to shareholders.

Although the Depositary has delegated the safekeeping of all assets held within the Company's investment portfolio to JP MEL, in the event of loss of those assets that constitute financial instruments under the AIFM Directive, the Depositary will be obliged to return to the Company financial instruments of an identical type, or the corresponding amount of money, unless it can demonstrate that the loss has arisen as a result of an external event beyond its reasonable control, the consequences of which would have been unavoidable despite all reasonable efforts to the contrary.

The Depositary receives an annual fee for its services of one basis point of the Company's net assets, payable monthly in arrears.

The depositary agreement in place with JP MEL and the related custody agreement in place with JPMCB continues unless and until terminated by the Company giving not less than 90 days' notice or by JP MEL giving not less than 120 days' notice, in each case such notice to be effective no earlier than the first anniversary of the effective date.

The Depositary's duties are owed to the Company and not directly to investors in the Company, whether individually or in groups. Accordingly, investors may not bring any action or make a claim against the Depositary under the depositary agreement.

Accordingly, the Company's shares may be purchased and sold on the main market of the London Stock Exchange. Legal implications of contractual relationship

The rights, obligations and relationships of the members of the Company shall be governed by the law of Scotland and subject to exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Scotland.

The Scottish courts generally recognise judgements obtained in the courts of another jurisdiction (subject to, inter alia, the legislation on the recognition of judgements referred to below, the rules of the Scottish courts in relation to the recognition and/or enforcement of foreign judgements and such judgements not being contrary to public policy in Scotland). The exact rules, on the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgements, depend on the jurisdiction in which such judgements are obtained. Legislation providing for the reciprocal recognition of foreign judgements in Scotland includes: Civil Jurisdiction and Judgements Act 1982/EU Council Regulation EC no. 44/2001 (“CJJA”) in respect of all EU countries other than Denmark (with equivalent provisions applying to Denmark, Iceland, Norway and Switzerland as signatories to the Brussels and Lugano Conventions, both of which are covered by the CJJA reciprocal enforcement provisions); Foreign Judgements (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act 1933 in respect of those jurisdictions covered by the CJJA, Israel, Suriname and Tonga and to judgements of the recognised courts of the Commonwealth countries of Australia, the Federal Court of Canada and any courts in most of the provinces of Canada as well as Guernsey, the Isle of Man, the Bailiwick of Jersey, certain territories of the Republic of India and Pakistan; and the Administration of Justice Act 1920 in respect of the superior courts of Commonwealth countries and British Overseas Territories within 12 months from the date of the relevant judgement.

In respect of all other jurisdictions (including the United States), judgements are not automatically enforceable in Scotland and would be required to be enforced in Scotland under common law.

Fees and expenses

The fees and expenses which will be borne by the Company and investors are limited as set out above, but there is no formal cap on their level.

Accordingly, the maximum amount of fees and expenses which could theoretically be indirectly borne by the investors is equal to the value of their investment in the Company, including, in relation to indemnities, any distributions made to them by the Company.

Fair treatment of investors

The legal and regulatory regime to which the Company and the Directors are subject ensures the fair treatment of investors. The FCA Listing Rules require that the Company treats all shareholders of the same class of shares equally.

In particular, each Director has statutory duties under the Companies Act 2006 with which they must comply, including a duty to act in the way he or she considers, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of its members as a whole.

No investor has a right to obtain preferential treatment in relation to their investment in the Company and the Company does not give preferential treatment to any investors. Furthermore, the AIFM does not give preferential treatment to any investors who open savings plan accounts for the purpose of investing in the shares of the Company and it is obliged under the rules of the FCA to ensure that all investors in the savings plans are treated fairly. Oversight of its compliance with the aforementioned rules and the achievement of fair outcomes for investors is undertaken by the F&C Group Treating Customers Fairly Committee and through the operation of an embedded complaints handling procedure.

The Company reports in its Interim Report and Accounts, which can be found at www.fcmanagedportfolio.co.uk, whether the key risks have changed since the year end.
